

MARY ARMSTRONG

2345 COLLEGE DRIVE

BUFFALO, NEW YORK 14222

716-863-5679

ARMSTRONG@YAHOO.COM

OBJECTIVE

Child/Adolescent Counselor

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Sociology

State University of New York College at Buffalo

Graduation: 5/XX GPA 3.9/4.0

Study Abroad, Spring 20XX

University of Salamanca, Spain

RELEVANT COURSES

Sociology of the Family

Child Development

Child Abuse and Neglect

Juvenile Delinquency

Adolescent & Young Adult Development

Child Welfare Services

EXPERIENCE

Group Home Residential Intern

9/XX-present

The Home Group, Buffalo, New York

- Provide counseling and support for emotionally disturbed and/or juvenile delinquent female residents.
- Plan and implement educational and social programs.
- Led in-service staff training program on eating disorders.
- Participate in weekly supervision meetings.

Residential Aide

5/XX-present

The Child's Foundation, Buffalo, New York

- Conduct intake, document histories, and provide assessment resulting in prioritized action plans for developmentally disabled males ages 15 to 23.
- Implement behavior modification and independent living programs.
- Develop social and educational programming.
- Write daily case notes.

Research Assistant

Summer 20XX

Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.

Department of Psychology, Dr. H. P. Samuels

- Prepared subjects for participation in research projects.
- Collected data that examined interpersonal processes and social interactions in father/son relationships.

Pre-School Teacher

9/XX-5/XX

The Children's Center, Williamsville, New York

- Prepared children ages 2 ½ to 6 with necessary developmental skills.
- Planned and scheduled daily activities.
- Met regularly with parents to discuss their children's progress.