

Lindsay R. Hansen

120 Ashland Avenue
Buffalo, New York 14222
(716) 886-1432

OBJECTIVE

Wildlife Biologist Assistant

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN BIOLOGY, 5/XX

State University of New York College at Buffalo State College

GPA: 3.8/4.0, Dean's List

COURSE WORK

Ecology

Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy

Organic Evolution

Comparative Animal Physiology

Animal Parasitology

Mammalogy

Ornithology

Vertebrate Structure and Function

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

RAPTOR REHABILITATION INTERN, 1/XX-present

Hawk Creek Rehabilitation Center, East Aurora, New York

- Performed initial assessment of injured raptors and reported finding to veterinary staff.
- Rehabilitated raptors for release into natural habitat.
- Conducted weekly wildlife/raptor education programs for groups of students and community adults.
- Raised over $1,000 in tow months through fund raising sessions at local malls.
- Prepared food, cleaned cages and observed animals receiving treatment.

WILDLIFE RESEARCH INTERN, 5/XX-8/XX

Carlsbad Caverns National Park, Carlsbad, New Mexico

- Conducted point counts to estimate cowbird abundance.
- Evaluated breeding success and brood parasitism rates on neotropical migrant species by performing nest counts.
- Identified birds through song and behavior.

RESEARCH INTERN, 5/XX-8/XX

Smithsonian Environmental Research Center, Edgewater, Maryland

- Designed and conducted vegetation monitoring research study around two deer exclosures.
- Observed and logged deer feeding habits and catalogued vegetation consumed.
- Documented findings through weekly research reports.

VOLUNTEER

CARETAKER, 3/XX-10/XX

Erie County SPCA, Tonawanda, New York

- Fed and cleaned cages of abandoned animals.
- Assessed condition of animals with veterinary staff.

ACTIVITIES

TREASURER, 8/XX-present

Biology Club, State University of New York College at Buffalo State College

- Managed a budget of $800 and allocated funds as necessary.
- Organized a bake sale that raised $100 for donation to the Erie County SPCA.
- Acted as crew chief during annual "Park Cleanup" event.
- Coordinated the club's spring camping trip to Allegany State Park.